Meet Your Neighbor
Drew, Mary Lou, and Jackson Boudreaux - 113B

Hello neighbors,

Mary Lou and Drew became Snowcrest owners in the Fall of 2018. No strangers to the mountain, Mary Lou has spent just over three decades working for the mountain and Drew is approaching his 30th season. Jackson Boudreaux our adopted Bluetick Coonhound is going on his 10th year accompanying them to the mountain.

Mary Lou had never been to a ski resort before her first visit to Snowshoe after college. Within two seasons she joined the Courtesy Patrol (now Mountain Guide program) and then the Ski Patrol the following season. Now 30 years later, she works as one of the weekend Ski Patrol Supervisors and can often be found training new staff to run toboggans safely down the mountain. Mary Lou's dedication to ski patrolling has not stopped at the local level. She has moved up the ranks of the National Ski Patrol and held several leadership roles that have culminated in her current role as one of 10 Division Directors of the national organization. Mary Lou also finds the summers on the mountain spectacular and continues her service leadership as a member of the downhill mountain bike patrol.

In her spare time, Mary Lou loves hiking, paddling, and spending quality time with her friends and family.

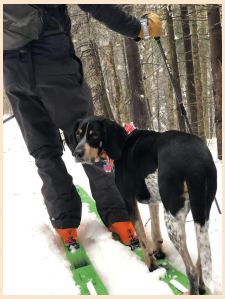

Drew grew up hearing stories of his parents and their friends and their ski adventures and shenanigans to Snowshoe, Wisp, MD and Colorado mountains. Once he and his friends were old enough to drive and day trip to Snowshoe, Wintergreen and Massanutten the explorations began. After college and without a 'real' job Drew and his best friend found an advertisement for Snowshoe Ski and Snowboard Instructors at their local ski shop. Throwing their names in the hat they both were hired by one of our very own Snowcrest community members and the rest is history. Drew is very thankful for that job offer, what he's learned, the people he's met and the places he's been because of that job offer and the ski industry.

Drew spent his winters early on the mountain working in the Ski School and Race Team. He now calls the Race Team his home but still finds time working with the School and spends nearly every winter weekend and the holidays coaching. Summers spent on the mountain early in his time at Snowshoe were spent at the golf course and Special Events. Now summers are spent traveling in from our home in Roanoke, VA, relaxing, hiking and riding bikes with Jackson Boudreaux and Mary Lou and the occasional excursion to find Brook Trout in places that resemble the home of the Ewoks. Otherwise, you can find Drew biking, hiking, paddling or fly fishing in his spare time.

We enjoy our great neighbors, the Snowcrest community and the location of Snowcrest. Being able to walk out of the building and into the Snowshoe backcountry is special whether it is a starry winter or summer night. We look forward to the fall and start of another winter. We hope to see you at Snowcrest soon!
